Lights

- JSA (Junior Statesmen of America) – Two students received Full Scholarships sponsored by U.S. Department of Interior, to attend JSA Program (Princeton University) for the summer (cost of program and transportation/student approx. $9,000 USD.)

- Students on ICE(SOI) for past 3 years 1 or 2 Xavier students have received full scholarships to participate in SOI program, a program that invites 100 students from around the world to join an expedition to the Arctic region, to study the effects of climate change on the environment and its impact on the world. (Cost/ student $12,000 - $15,000).

- Oxford University Summer Program: 2 Xavier students have received full scholarships to attend the summer program at Oxford University.

- World Tuna Diplomacy Youth Leadership Program. 3 Xavier students were given full scholarships (including airfare) to this program, which explores the world of people, technology and innovation for sustainable fisheries, in Oregon, USA.

- Jesuit to Jesuit: 4 Xavier students will spend about 2 weeks at Canisius College this summer, participating in Ignatian Social Justice Program. (Canisius College is funding all expenses.)

- APIC/SOPHIA Scholarship Program – Every year, Sophia University accepts 2 qualified students from Xavier High School, and APIC (Association for the Promotion of International Cooperation) gives them full scholarship (tuition, room and board, allowance, books and transportation, and yearly trip home).

Challenges

• Why go to Xavier?

• Location

• Is Xavier a New York Jesuit High School that happens to be in Micronesia,
Or,
Is Xavier High School a Micronesian Jesuit High School which happens (for the time being) to be administered by Jesuits of the United Northeast Province

Hope For the Future
(Possible Succession Plan)
